

Short BIO- Dr.Wajid Hussain

Dr.Wajid Hussain

Consultant Emergency Medicine

MBBS.MCEM.MRCS.FCEM

Dr.Wajid is a consultant in emergency medicine; with interest in trauma care, emergency ultrasound and medical education. Before working in Saudi Arabia, he worked in major trauma centres in United Kingdom (West Birmingham Hospitals UK, University Hospital Coventry and Warwickshire, George Elliot Hospital Nuneaton, Heart of England NHS Trust UK)

He has done fellowship and membership from Royal College of emergency medicine U.K.

His qualification also includes MRCS from Royal college of Surgeons of Edinburgh.

He has presented at various national and international conferences.

He worked as consultant at West Birmingham Hospitals and George Elliot hospital Nuneaton.

Dr.Wajid has been actively involved in pre hospital care in U.K. and worked with St.John's ambulance services.

He is the director of advance emergency ultrasound course (conducted in UK and KSA), and consultant incharge for research training and emergency US training at King Faisal Specialist hospital Jeddah.

He has publication in international journals and currently working on capacity management in emergency department.

He has established Rapid assessment and acute care zone in his emergency department.

His recent research also include " Role of emergency coordinators " and Role of GP in emergency department"

